

25th National Biodiversity Network Conference
Thursday 20 November 2025
SS Great Britain, Bristol
25 years of “Making data work for nature”

08:45 - 09:20 Registration

Morning session

09:20 - 09:25 Welcome and introduction by Pete Tomlin, NBN Trust Chairperson

09:25 – 09:35 Dr Gareth Thomas, NBN Trust CEO – “Sharing a vision for the future”

Session 1: 25 years of collaboration

09:35 – 10:00 Keynote address – Dr John Tweddle, Head of Centre for UK Nature and Research Theme Leader, UK Nature Recovery, Angela Marmont Centre

10:00 – 10:15 Tim Corner, Bristol Regional Environmental Records Centre – “Kestrel’s fluffy ears”

10:15 – 10:30 Martin Harvey, UKCEH Biological Records Centre (BRC) – “From field observation to global data: (some of) the many links between recorders, schemes, organisations and portals”

10:30 - 10:45 TBC

10:45 – 10:55 Q&A

10:55 – 11:25 Tea / coffee break

Session 2: The here and now

11:25 – 11:40 Christine Tansey, Biodiversity Data Manager (NBN Atlas)

11:40 – 11:55 Dr Ben Holt, The Rockpool Project – “The Big Rock Pool Challenge - A UK wide marine citizen science adventure”

11:55 – 12:10 Emma Squire and Devmini Bandara, PhD students, University of Exeter (RENEW Biodiversity Programme: Renewing biodiversity through a people-in-nature approach) – “iNaturalistUK User Survey and Observation Records”

12:10 – 12:25 Dr Damian McFerran, Centre for Environmental Data and Recording (CEDaR), National Museums NI – “CEDaR, what has it all been about?”

12:25 – 12:40 Dr Carlos Bedson, Natural England – “Designing a climate change resilient landscape connectivity network from a multi-species perspective”

12:40 – 12:45 Q&A

12.45 – 14:00 Lunch, posters and displays and other optional activities
Drawing corner – art participation with Dr Lauren Cook – Sir Marc Brunel room
NBN Record Manager – demo with Josh Keenan – main lecture theatre – end of lunchbreak (Time TBC)
Self-guided tour of SS Great Britain.

25th National Biodiversity Network Conference
Thursday 20 November 2025
SS Great Britain, Bristol
25 years of “Making data work for nature”

Afternoon session

Session 3: Chair of session - Pete Tomlin

The Sir John Burnett Memorial Lecture 2025

14:00 – 14:30 Katie-jo Luxton, RSPB, Executive Director, Global Conservation - “Making data work for nature; the value of monitoring and recording to inform State of Nature reporting, drive recovery action and influence systemic change”

NBN Awards for Wildlife Recording 2025

14.30 – 15:15 Announcement of winners and highly commended nominees

15:15 – 15:45 Tea / coffee break

Session 4: Beyond the now – what’s next?

15:45 – 16:00 Kate Ingenloff, Scientific Officer, Global Biodiversity Information Facility (GBIF) – “Advancing Biodiversity Data Sharing in GBIF”

16:00 – 16:15 Duncan Allen, Defra – “From Observation to Action: Using iNaturalist to help Monitor and Elevate Plant Health Awareness in the UK”

16:15 – 16:30 Dr Lauren Cook, UK Centre for Ecology & Hydrology – “Translating environmental DNA (eDNA) for monitoring nature”

16:30 – 16:45 Fireside chat – Dr Gareth Thomas, NBN Trust CEO and Tom Gray, BBC, Head of Nature – “Engaging the widest audience for nature”

16:45 – 16:50 Chairperson’s summing up

16.50 End of NBN Conference

17:00 – 17:15 NBN Trust AGM

NBN Conference is organised by:

With huge thanks to our 2025 NBN Conference partners: